- Review Minutes from 3/25/20 -
- DOE update--what's happening with the rest of the year?
 - Level 10- At least until May 1- won't be able to plan more specifically until our region is lifted.
 - Possibly not knowing summer availability until June 1
 - Have to brainstorm/assume that we may not have access to facilities for training throughout the summer
- What do we want to do with Linn-Mar Summer University?
- Nathan has submitted the 2nd half of payment for committee members to the business office.
- When/if should we send out instructor sign up for 2020-21 workshops? (Erin)
 - Possible times: PreK-8, 4:00 - 5:50 pm, grades 9-12, 6:45 - 8:35 am, and 4:15-6:05 pm
 - Might we want to give instructors the freedom to offer a virtual workshop at a different time of day as well? For example, as a parent of young children I could offer a virtual workshop from 8:00-9:50 pm after my kids are asleep.
 - Continue to also offer blended options? Learning is asynchronous at your own pace with specified due dates (as Ryan has done past 2 years)

The committee will hold off on sending out the instructor sign-up for workshops taking place after the August 15th TQSA day. The August 15th day is still tentatively scheduled. Erin will contact those instructors and let them know that we are still planning on holding those workshops.

- Let's send a reminder to staff to get their "Bingo Card" for this year's workshops and
