Counselors are planning a trip to Coe or Mt. Mercy on Thursday, Nov. 8th.

10th and 11th grade students are invited to visit Coe College OR Mt. Mercy University. We ask that students choose one of the colleges for the morning of November 8th. Students will be back for afternoon classes (miss 1st-5th periods). This is a great opportunity to get a first taste of what it is like to visit a college/university. Coe and Mt. Mercy both offer unique opportunities for our students so close to home! Sign-up will be in the College/Career Center. Students are expected to return a permission form to attend and have teachers complete the advanced homework make-up form prior to leaving on Thursday morning.

*Seniors: Just a reminder that all transcript requests to colleges and teacher recommendation letters are done through Family Connection. If you need help with this process stop in the College/Career Center or see your School Counselor.
